DAVENPORT; FAMOUS CARTOONIST IS DEAD

NEW YORK, May 2.—Homer Calvin Davenport, the noted cartoonist, died in his apartments here this morning, following a short illness. Davenport was born at Silverton, Oregon, March 8, 1867. Without schooling or art education and after many vicissitudes as a jockey, circus clown and railroad stoker, he was employed by the San Francisco Examiner in 1892, and since then has been engaged upon the staff of the American and Journal, the World and the evening Mail of New York. He has also appeared as a Lyceum lecturer. He has published "Davenport's Cartoons," "The Bell of Silverton" and other short stories of Oregon.

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 1.—President Taft arrived here early this morning and breakfasted with Mayor Barrett. After the two distinguished Americans had partaken of the morning meal they repaired to where the services were being held in memory of Major J. W. Butt, aide to the president's staff. The president made the principle speech. The entire city looked mournful with flags at half mast and buildings decorated with yards and yards of crepe. This afternoon the president will be entertained at the Commercial Club's building with a large reception in his honor.

SEVEN OF THE EIGHT DELEGATES FOR ROOSEVELT

BOSTON, May 1.—Seven of the eight delegates-at-large elected at the primaries held Tuesday have determined to vote for ex-President Roosevelt for the nomination, despite the Colonel's announcement to the effect that he did not care to have the delegates vote for him, as he failed in carrying the Massachusetts primaries. Delegate-at-large George Coleman, in an interview with the United Press, said: "I feel that I owe allegiance to my constituents who voted for me as a delegate after my pledging that I was a Roosevelt supporter. The Colonel really has nothing to do with me in this matter. I shall vote for him at the Chicago convention, irrespective of his wishes."

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Mrs. William Howard Taft has given the first dollar to a woman's Titanic memorial, which it is proposed shall be erected in Washington to commemorate the men who went down with the ship. Galbraith, ex-president of the Second Cincinnati National bank and one of the best known business men in Ohio, was arrested this morning on a warrant charging him with misappropriation of the funds in the bank to the sum of $33,000. FIFTEEN BODIES
ARE FOUND BY

HALIFAX, Nova Scotia, May 2.—Captain Minia, of the rescue ship Chester, has just sent a message this afternoon saying that he has found no other bodies near the scene of where the Titanic disaster occurred.

However, the Chester has 15 bodies on board, which were previously reported. The boat will return to this city on Monday.

RUNAWAY
AEROPLANE NOT YET LOCATED

LONDON, May 2.—The hop farmers of Kent county are still searching for a runaway aeroplane—the first on record. Several days ago an aviator at Tunbridge Wells, by a sudden lurch, was thrown out of his machine just as it was leaving the ground. Relieved of his weight, the aeroplane rose swiftly. The planes kept on a perfect balance, and soon it was beyond sight. A search of the entire country roundabout has proved fruitless, and it is thought by some that the machine was driven out to sea.

DESPERATE PRISONERS
HEAVILY ARMED MAKE THEIR ESCAPE FROM PRISON FARM

RENO, Nev., May 2.—Some time last night or early this morning two "honorable" men of the prison farm made their escape. The two escapees are Frank Webb and Jas. Lisle, both desperate men. They made their getaway on horseback, on horses stolen from a nearby farm. The fugitives from justice are armed with a shotgun and rifle and are said to be supplied with an abundance of ammunition. Webb has served four terms in various prisons and is known to be a desperate character. Lisle is serving a term for horse stealing. Both men are expected to put up a desperate fight, and it is said, they will forfeit their lives rather than be retaken. The state police and prison guards, together with the sheriff's posse from Douglas county, are following the escapees. It is thought the prisoners are headed south and are making for Bridgeport to cross the mountains into Inyo county, enroute to Arizona.

CARSON, Nev., May 2.—2 p. m.—Up to this hour the posse in pursuit of the two escaped convicts have failed to overtake the escapees. It is said they have been unable to find their trail. The state police bloodhounds were turned loose in an endeavor to pick up the trail of the fleeing men, but were unable to do so. The hounds proved to be splendid rabbit trailers. It is now thought the prisoners had accomplices to aid them in making their escape from the farm.

CHICAGO PRINTING PRESSMEN
WENT OUT ON STRIKE TODAY

CHICAGO, May 1.—The International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' local of this city who are employed on the daily newspapers, struck this morning as a result of the refusal of the United Paper Publishers' organization refusing to sign up with the pressmen, granting them an increase of 10 per cent in wages. The early morning papers got out their editions as usual but after 12 o'clock today no more editions will be issued. The members of the Publishers' association said the first editions were delayed somewhat. However, they say they will get out small papers with non-union pressmen.

TREASURER OF NEWSPAPER NOW
FACING PRISON

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 2.—George P. Green, treasurer of the Los Angeles Examiner, was arrested here late yesterday on a bench warrant, following his indictment by the grand jury for embezzlement. In default of $5000 bail, he was locked up in the county jail.

Green's indictment charges embezzlement of $60. The shortages thus far discovered may aggregate $10,000, it is reported.

Green has been treasurer of the paper since it started, seven years ago.

TEMPORAL POWER IS NOT POSSIBLE

ROME, May 2.—The hopes of a restoration of the temporal power of the Pope either through the friendly or forcible mediation of some other power, have just received one more setback in a public declaration of Baron Hertling, the new premier of Bavaria.

Baron Hertling was formerly the leader of the Central or Catholic party, and when he was elevated to the position of president of the Bavarian cabinet of ministers, high hopes were raised that at last a champion of the restoration of the temporal power of the Pope had not only been found, but had been placed in a position of sufficient power to make that end possible. Baron Hertling was even quoted as saying that the movement for the restoration of the temporal power of the Pope "is asleep now, but will be awakened in its own good time."

These assertions of his expected policy toward the restoration of the temporal power of the church became so strong that he was finally obliged to announce his official attitude to the Bavarian diet. In this address he not only denied all

HOME RULE
BILL BARS OUT
WOMEN VOTERS

LONDON, May 2.—"The Home Rule bill is evidence of the government's intention to exclude women from all share in electing the local parliaments to be established in the various parts of the kingdom; therefore, we are against it," says a manifesto issued by the Women's Social and Political Union, under the direction of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst.

The bill is further characterized as a reactionary measure in that it aims to create a new federal constitution "upon the bad old basis of an exclusively male franchise," and that it ignores the advice and example of Australia and New Zealand, where women have been given the vote.

of the statements that had been attributed to him on the subject, but declared his firm belief that the restoration of a temporal kingdom to the Pope is now an utter impossibility.

HUNGRY REBELS ARE NOW READ FOR BATTLE

EL PASO, Tex., May 2.—Authentic reports from rebel headquarters, below the state of Chihuahua, say that the food supplies are nearly exhausted and the country nearby has been stripped of all edibles and the cavalry horses are emaciated; men are hungry. General Pasqual Orozco must fight his way into the Laguna district, where food is plentiful immediately or retire to Chihuahua. It is believed that Orozco will force the battle immediately. The rebels say that reinforcements are on the way from Sinaloa, coming to combined with the forces of Generals Salazar and Orozco, and will attack Torrean, while General Zapata is attacking the City of Mexico.

UNDERWOOD
GETS DELEGATES FROM GEORGIA

ATLANTA, Ga., May 2.—Complete returns from the democratic primaries held in this state last Tuesday give Congressman Underwood, leader of the majority in the house of representatives, a plurality of over 8000 votes over Woodrow Wilson. The vote for Champ Clark, speaker of the house of representatives, and Judson A. Harmon was small. Underwood secured Georgia's eighteen delegates.

WELL KNOWN
SAN FRANCISCAN IS MURDERED

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—Edward Stansbury, a disgruntled laborer, walked into the office of George Penlington, secretary of the Odd Fellows' cemetery, yesterday afternoon and shot him dead at his desk, in the presence of two witnesses. Then he laid the revolver and a box of cartridges down on the desk and gave himself up.

Stansbury had been eight years in the employ of the association. He told the police tonight that he had never quarreled with Penlington, but that three months ago, his wife had complained to the president of the association that he was neglecting his family and he believed that Penlington had instigated the complaint. Penlington was known to Odd Fellows all over the country.

APPEALATE
COURT REFUSES TO ISSUE WRIT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Following a long technical argument, the appellate court today refused to issue a writ of mandamus, compelling Judge Dunn to dismiss the eighty outstanding Ruel indictments. The Ruel attorneys stated this afternoon that they would immediately file an amended petition to the writ.

NO CHANCE FOR ROOSEVELT'S SELECTION

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 1.—The Taft bureau in this city today issued a formal statement to the effect that Colonel Roosevelt needs at least three hundred and thirteen more delegates to control the convention. There only remains three hundred and fourteen more to be elected, about whose position as between the various candidates the people haven't already spoke. According to these figures it can readily be seen how utterly hopeless Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's fight apparently is.

CLODBURST IN SOUTH TEXAS KILLS MANY

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 2.—According to complete reports today, twenty-one persons were killed and a great number are injured as the result of the clodburst and tornado which occurred in the southern part of the state yesterday. Relief parties have started to the scene of the disaster. Several are known to be missing.

E. Powelson, a representative of the Los Angeles Brewing company, after spending several days in this city in the interest of his firm, left for the Southern California city today.

MINERS AND OPERATORS REFUSE TO COMPROMISE

NEW YORK, May 1.—The anthracite coal mine operators today met with the scale committee of the miners, which were selected some time since to consider the report of the sub-committee on a promise. The meeting was held at the Hotel Earlington. Reports from the meeting state that some of the scale committee insist on greater concessions than the operators are willing to grant.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The full committee of the anthracite miners have flatly rejected the compromise agreement. The operators' full committee had already accepted the plan.

SUBMERGED MINES
